

Application of Nanotechnologies and Nanomaterials in Medicine

NanoM 2012

Homerton College, Cambridge

29th May 2012

The conference will provide a binding platform for interactions between clinicians, scientists and engineers from industry, government research laboratories, medical institutions and academia. It will also offer an opportunity to learn how manipulation of materials at the nanoscale will revolutionise medicine.

Speakers:

- Prof. Chris Lowe, Director of the Institute of Biotechnology, University of Cambridge
- Prof. Shervanthi Homer-Vanniasinkam, Cons. Vascular Surgeon, General Infirmary, Leeds
- Prof. Kostas Kostarelos, Chair of Nanomedicine and Head of Centre for Drug Delivery Research School of Pharmacy, UCL, London
- Prof. Alexander Seifalin, Professor of Nanotechnology and Regenerative Medicine, UCL, London
- Dr. Eric Mayes, CEO at Endomagnetics Ltd., Cambridge
- Dr. Victor Higgs, Managing Director, Applied Nanodetectors, Enfield Middlesex
- Dr. Bob Carr, CTO, NanoSight Ltd, Amesbury, Wiltshire
- Dr. Dimitri Aubert, Director EMEA, Izon Sciences Ltd, Oxford
- Dr. Yi Ge, Lecturer in Nanomedicine, Cranfield University, Cranfield

The conference will offer:

- Presentation of the latest nanoscale platforms and solutions to the medical community
- Bringing together cutting edge nanotechnologies, biomedical and clinical knowledge
- Establishing connections between industry and clinical research through multidisciplinary collaborations
- Fast tracking translation pathways from research to products and supply chain building
- Case studies of application of nanotechnologies and nanomaterials in medicine presented by leading companies in the field
- Panel discussion on the subject of application of nanomaterials in medicine and pharmacology and analysis of interactions between industry and clinical research

Delegate Fees (Deadline 24th May 2012)

- Academics and NHS: £125
- Students (limited number of seats): £80
- Industry: £175
- Industry (SMEs): £150

Registration fees include: access to the meeting, refreshments on arrival, mid-morning and mid-afternoon, 2 course buffet lunch and free on-site parking (a barrier code will be provided prior to event).

Sponsorship: Exhibition

The basic sponsoring package (£500 table-top exhibition) offers unique opportunities to show-case your products and services to a highly targeted audience and includes:
